

Make Your Garden Grow

Pick me! Pick me! I'm ready to harvest!

Basil is an herb that is often used in pasta sauce, pizza, and other tomato dishes. Pinch basil leaves off near the stem.

Store freshly picked basil leaves in a glass of water on the counter (like a bouquet of flowers). They will last about a week. Basil leaves can also be frozen or dried.

For recipes and other gardening information, visit our website: lucas.osu.edu/makeyourgardengrow

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

Share on social media:
#youwillgrowbetterintoledo
#itmatterswhereyoumakeit
#makeyourgardengrow